

J O N B R A D L E Y

JOB OBJECTIVE: Utilitizing my skill sets, experience, and wide understanding of computer technology, to create elegant and lasting working enviroments. I am very much a supporter of open products and software, love to write scripts that automate many tasks. I also have a very solid customer service and support background.

weatchu@gmail.com
(907) 748-4972

4255 Old Seward Hwy - Apt #2B
Anchorage, Alaska 99503

TECHNICAL BACKGROUND

- 11 years experience maintaining and running Linux system both servers and desktop.
- 3 years experience remote tech support for Mosquitonet ISP.
- A+ Certified in 2008
- Associates degree from UAA, major of Computer Networking Technician, class of 2010.
- 1 year training on CISCO routers and switching equipment.
- First rate scripting language ablities, includes Perl, Bash and Ruby, savvy at decoding syntax.
- University Courses in C programming, and JAVA.
- Extremely comfortable working with any computer hardware, have been opening up equipment since the 80's.

EDUCATION

- 2006 to 2010: University Of Alaska, Anchorage, Alaska Associates Degree in the Computers & Networking Technician Program.
- Cisco Certified Networking Associate (CCNA) Courses Completed (total time 1 year), have Endorcement, test pending.
- 1993 to 1995: Alaska Junior College, Anchorage, Alaska Completed 57, toward degree in their Electrical Engineering Technician (EET) Program.
- 1987 to 1990: Landmark High School, Beverly, Massachusetts Graduated 1990 with High School Diploma.

PERSONAL INTERESTS

- Scripting in Bash, Perl or Ruby to accomplish general computer tasks quicker, backing up, monitoring, sometimes just for fun.
- 1998 Wrote a telnet based Internet Bulletin Board System. About 7100 lines of C code, currently running on a BSD server which is still up and running today.
- 1997 got into open source software also Linux OS. Have ran most of the popular Linux distrobutions, including building linux from scratch.
- Source code I've written is available on my github repository:
<https://github.com/rabbitear>

WORK HISTORY

- 2008: Kohls (contract via CompuCom): Anchorage, Alaska
Installation of Kohls cash machines and wireless access points, as well as setting up computers for demonstration.
- 1997 to 2000: MosquitoNet, Fairbanks, Alaska
Remote telephone tech support for ISP in Fairbanks. On the phone all the time with customers. In-house Windows and Macintosh repair and network setup.
- 1996 to 1996: CLI Computers, Albuquerque, New Mexico
Computer & Equipment Repair, Mac service center
Worked on many Inkjet Printers.
- 1994 (3 month internship): Computer Land, Anchorage, Alaska
3 months college internship: basic bench tech.
Worked with Macintosh and Intel based systems that are now relics, hardware diagnosis, component replacement and repair, new installations, hardware and software upgrades.
- 1993 to 1995: National Bank of Alaska, Anchorage, Alaska
Document Proof Operator using Unisys proof machine. Running paper checks at over 2400 checks per hour via 10-key.
- 1987 to 1990: American Indian Science & Engineering Society, Boulder, Colorado
Computer Consultant, PS/2 and Apple Computers.
Assisted teachers at math and computer courses.
Students and teachers using Logo programming language.